General basis of calculation

CC risk

The CC risk always rests with the destination partner. He decides whether to work on the basis of payment by cash or cheque or on account.

Exception: CC fees cannot be collected by the consignee for the following reasons, e.g.

- refusal to accept delivery by the consignee,
- problems with import clearance,
- other reasons making the collection of CC fees impossible for the destination agent.

In these cases the shipment can be returned using the cheapest method or destroyed or treated otherwise based on an individual arrangement as agreed and at the expense of the departure agent.

Break bulk

No break bulk fee is charged, only splitting charges or similar fees as incurred.

Profit share

Collect shipments 50/50,

Prepaid shipments routed by the destination agent are also 50/50

No profit share for normal prepaid shipments. The destination agent has the opportunity of profiting from local charges in this case.

members may make other agreements.

FOB costs remain with the departure partner, DDU costs remain with the destination partner.

As a basic rule, any losses are to be borne by the partner who generated the business.

Something about Communication in the network:

- 1) Placing a message to all members: please send your message to info@con5con.com with the remark "Forward to C5C-Members". C5C will then distribute this message among all members.
- 2) First contact with another member: please put "C5C-Member" in the subject-line in order not to be mistaken, as these days many forwarders send out First-contact-messages and those are likely to be deleted.
- 3) Please keep a fair manner and a decent tone in your correspondence, even when things might not go the way they were planned before.
- 4) Feedback on quotations: in the rush of daily business life it has become normal manner not to reply on given proposals. But we ask our members to give appropriate feedback upon bigger inquiries e.g. general rates inquiries, specific inquiries for projects or tenders and others.
- 5) Be frank, be open! It's not good to keep your opinion for yourself – if something went wrong or not for your satisfaction, then say so. Improvement is a process, which can only be achieved by learning out of mistakes. This also includes your C5C-management, of course. But always consider the right tone, of course.
- 6) If you are in need for an agency abroad, do not hesitate to contact the C5C-management. Due to our intense travel work and our global contacts we shall be able to provide you with certain information about any market or at least start an inquiry among all members.
- 7) Disputes, queries should also be carried out in a fair manner. Please discuss any problems inside the C5C-network with us first, we will do our very best to help in solving the problem.
- 8) C5C is always open for proposals on improvement, changes of the C5C-network and its basics. Please let us know your ideas.
